

Hey, ho, blood and gore

Taija Paju

All for one and one for all, to arms for the king, we'll heed our call.

Pride in the heart we will stand tall, we'll fight for our land and will not fall!

Hey, ho, blood and gore, cuts and bruises are in store. We are marching off to war, strong-er than be-fore! A sword of steel and a shield in the hand on the field to-gether we stand. No foe can our force with-stand, we'll fight for the king and for the land. Hey, ho, blood and gore, cuts and bruises are in store.

We are marching off to war, stronger than be-fore! When the moon is shin-ing high, on the field some of us will lie. It is for the land, we will not cry, we'll fight for the king un - til we die! Hey, ho, blood and gore, cuts and bruise - es are in store.
